

PART III - JUSTIFICATION AND CITATION DATA (Use specific brief examples of meritorious acts or service)

20. ACHIEVEMENTS

ACHIEVEMENT #1

CW3 Michael Danberry has gone far above and beyond the call of duty by creating, maintaining and supporting the militarycac.com website from 2007-present. His efforts in this regard have literally helped many thousands of Servicemembers of all branches get connectivity to the DoD domains, as well as application support for everything from enterprise email to Defense Travel System, to Army Knowledge Online, and more, including the security protocols to go with it, such as digital signature capture from any device.

ACHIEVEMENT #2

As a Battalion Commander who is also a signal/cyber qualified Officer, I have literally watched the site evolve over a period of several years, as it continues to help thousands of Servicemembers. What makes Chief Danberry's efforts significant is that he has captured a critical need for plainly and distinctly helping Soldiers where traditional methods within program offices have failed. His support is simple and easy to follow, and has enabled Servicemembers to utilize emerging technology such as Apple products to get work done.

ACHIEVEMENT #3

His efforts include thousands of hours creating and maintaining the site, as well as answering support questions from many Servicemembers daily, far above and beyond the call of duty. He has also invested his personal resource to establish it, no government money has been spent on it. It is by FAR the best repository for all questions from DoD servicemembers issues connecting to the DoD domain and running mission critical admin applications. He is unquestionably the single subject matter expert within DoD on this topic.

ACHIEVEMENT #4

The exceptionally meritorious, strategic, and completely voluntary contributions and achievement of CW3 Michael Danberry over thousands of hours of his own personal time and resources over a period of seven years have enabled tens of thousands of Servicemembers to accomplish their missions without any cost to the government. All of this time spent was over and above, and unconnected to his normal duties within his unit.

21. PROPOSED CITATION

THE STRATEGIC AND VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS AND ACHIEVEMENTS OF CW3 MICHAEL DANBERRY OVER THOUSANDS OF HOURS OF HIS OWN PERSONAL TIME AND RESOURCES OVER THE COURSE OF SEVEN YEARS HAVE ENABLED TENS OF THOUSANDS OF SERVICEMEMBERS TO ACCOMPLISH THEIR MISSIONS WITHOUT ANY COST TO THE US GOVERNMENT. CHIEF DANBERRY'S ACCOMPLISHMENTS AND WILLINGNESS TO GO WELL ABOVE AND BEYOND THE CALL OF DUTY TO ASSIST FELLOW SERVICEMEMBERS IS IN KEEPING WITH THE HIGHEST TRADITIONS OF THE MILITARY INTELLIGENCE READINESS COMMAND, THE US ARMY RESERVE AND THE DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE.
